FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Beware of Favor Destroyers

-Pastor Cal Lawanson

PROVERBS 4:1-6 "Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding. For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law. For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth. Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee" life. Our love for God means we obey His commandments. Obeying God's commandments triggers God's help or favor on your behalf.

Favor of God and man can be triggered and can be stopped as well by some things we do and don't do.

Some favor stoppers are as follows: UNTHANKFULNESS, FAULT FINDINGS, MURMURINGS, DISHONOR, NEGLECT OF THINGS IMPORTANT TO GOD, BETRAYAL AND UN-

FORGIVENESS.

We have to be careful not to trigger these things so we do not stop the wind of favor blowing our way.

The Word of God works for us whenever we engage it and on the flipside, it does not work for us if we do not engage it. The love of God is not a guarantee of God's blessing upon your life. The love of God for you give you access to draw closer to God and activate His Word for your benefit. But your love for God does can guarantee God's blessing upon your

To be loyal to Christ is the Christian's supreme quest in this life. We owe no other loyalty compared to that which we owe Him. That loyalty is shown in our obedient response to His teaching in the imitation of His life.

Are We Loyal?

Jesus said to a certain person, "Follow me." The man replied, "Lord suffer me to go and bury my father." This is surely important to a son who has lost his very own father. However, Jesus replied, "Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God." (Luke 9:59-60).

The Savior showed His respect for departed friends and love ones. (Read John 11:11-36). His demand on the man who lost his father was not disrespectful of the dead. It was a test of loyalty. There are more important things in the life of a Christian than those that pertain only to this life in the flesh.

But are we really trustworthy to Christ when we allow many things pertaining to this life to come before our duty to the Lord? Are we loyal when:

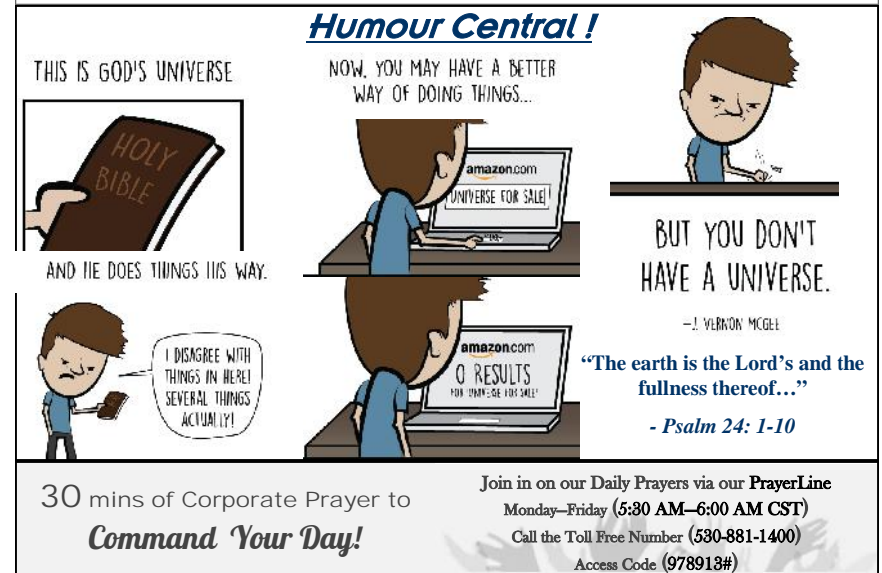

1. We fail to attend services because friends came in to see us unexpectedly? If the Lord put following Him ahead of burying one's father, what about attendance of meetings of His church?

2. When we fail to give liberally because we ran up too many bills buying things that we did not necessarily need?

3. When we do not invite people to study with us because we are afraid of making them uncomfortable?
4. When we allow a headache or other minor discomforts to keep us from worship, but not our jobs?
5. When we appear very religious on the Lord's Day and live so that no one would ever suspect us of being a Christian the rest of the week?
6. When we are more interested in making money than we are in making melody in our hearts.
7. When we feel that because of what we think is bad treatment in the church we just quit?
8. When we are more concerned over our children's social standing than we are in their spiritual condition?

There are other things, lots of them, we would do well to consider them and recommit our loyalty to God.
